

5a. Only the segment along Interstate 215 is unique to this Alternative. 4 unique historic architecture sites and 4 historic sites are located along Interstate 215. No prehistoric sites are present within this segment of the alternative. The “Lake Mathews” quarry site and collection area was identified by the NAHC as a Native American cultural resource.

3.12.4.14 Alternative H3

There are 24 prehistoric, 10 historic, no multi-component and 7 historical architecture sites within Alternative H3. None of the cultural resource sites within the alignment have been evaluated for listing on the National Register. Alternative H3 follows Alternative H1 except where Alternative H3 follows La Sierra Avenue north to State Route 91. One unique historic site and 5 prehistoric sites are located along La Sierra Avenue. The “Lake Mathews” quarry site and collection area was identified by the NAHC as a Native American cultural resource.